Apvice .- As the hot season is approaching, every person should prepare their system for the change, and there is no remedy so applicable as "McLeans strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier." It will purify the blood thoroughly, and at the same time strengthen and invigorate the whole organization. The immense quantity of it that is sold daily, is proof enough of its great virtues in thoroughly removing all impure matter from the blood. We say to all, try it! It is delicious to take. We would call particulal attention to McLean's notice in another column. We add the following from the St. Louis Herald, which speaks volumes in its favor. We say to all give it a trial:

"We take especial pleasure in recommending Mc-Lean's celebrated Strengthening Cordial as an invaluable remedy for general debility and weakness. We have seen it tested in a circle under our own immediate observation, and can vouch for its efficiency and worth. It is an article which should be kept constantly in every family, as it is certainly an invaluable medicine. See the advertisement in another column. octl-dawlm

The Races-Sixth Day.

The races over the Nashville course closed Saturday. The day was very disagreeablecold and rainy-but the attendance was good. and the smiles of the ladies afforded sufficent sunshine for a much gloomier day. FIRST RACE.

There were three entries for the first race, Alcock's br. f. by Albion, Barne's ch f. by Stackpole, and Lewis' ch. f. by Wagner. FIRST HEAT .- The three horses came to the stand, and at the tap of the drum went off handsomely, Alcock's filly having the inside track and Barnes taking the outside, and leading iff after a few strides. On the back stretch, however, Barnes ran up alongside, and the two went together till they reached the home-stretch, when Alcock came up and took the lead and won the heat by about two lengths, Lewis bringing up the rear twice that distance behind. Time-2:04%. SECOND HEAT,-Another good start was had. Barnes went a little ahead towards the end of the first hulf, but Alcock soon closed the gap, leaving Lewis behind. Alcock and Barnes run together up to the stand, the former, however, threw in an extra lick and won the heat and the race by a mere trifle, Lewis few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suf falling outside the flag.
